SKRTICHLIVING

At SKRTICH LIVING we provide all the features necessary to assist in a smooth transition from home life to an independent lifestyle. Found in the heart of Niagara, SKRTICH LIVING has separated itself from alternative student housing options by catering not only to mature Brock University and Niagara College students but to young professionals alike.

The demand for an innovative, modern and independent living experience has been harmonized into every SKRTICH LIVING home. Large, furnished rooms fully equipped and inclusive of high speed internet, television, and our signature private en suite bathroom makes SKRTICH LIVING a quality environment that inspires creativity and fosters productivity.

On site laundry adds to the comfort and convenience of SKRTICH LIVING homes. Common areas are equipped with stylish sofas, a coffee table, a flat screen television, and custom cabinetry for easy storage in the kitchen. These amenities allow you to interact with your roommates and still have your own private space to enjoy.

Our suites are in high demand and our portfolio of properties is rapidly expanding. Please note that each of our units are rented on a first come, first serve basis.
